ABOUT

Texas-born and Nashville-based, singer-songwriter Megan Kelley began her journey on Texas opry stages, drawing early inspiration from the melodies of Wynonna, Mariah Carey, Pam Tillis, and Brandy, along with the lyrical craftsmanship of Dean Dillon, Brandy Clark, and Miranda Lambert. Today, she is known for capturing raw emotion and sharp storytelling in collaborations with fellow songwriters and emerging artists. Refusing to be confined to a single genre, Megan crafts songs rooted in real-life stories that resonate deeply with listeners. Her songs have been recorded by Dolan, Mariah Faith, Jenna Kay, Billy Dutch, McKenna Faith Winters, and Emma James. A 2025 finalist with Texas Songwriter U, she co-wrote "Pretty Good" with Abbey Rowe and Cedric Israel, earning 3rd place in the 2024 International Songwriting Competition.

WHAT TO EXPECT

Acoustic performances of original songs and the stories behind them - how they came to be, the artists who chose to record them, and a first listen to new, unreleased songs before they hit the radio waves. Megan also performs cover songs, country and pop, if desired, so be sure to let her know whether covers and/or original music is preferred.
